PRESIDENT SIGNS LEGISLATIVE BILL

Measure, Twice Vetted, Finally Gets Executive O. K. After Cabinet Discussion.

FAR FROM BEING SATISFACTORY

After considerable hesitation and a discussion of the subject with his Cabinet yesterday the President finally signed the legislative, executive, and judicial bill. This measure, which was twice vetoed because it contained legislation objectionable to the President, is still far from being satisfactory to him, since it fails to appropriate for the Commerce Court through the entire fiscal year.

The bill was first vetoed last week because of three principal features—the abolition of the Commerce Court, the curtailment of the foreign trade relations of the State Department, and the putting of the civil service on a seven-year tenure basis. The bill was returned with the civil service tenure clause eliminated and was again vetoed. As passed for the third time it affects the commercial organization of the State Department less seriously and allows the Commerce Court to continue only through the present administration.

Signed Without Exception.
The President was inclined to refuse to sign the bill unless the Commerce Court was allowed to stand throughout the year, but following the discussion of the subject in the Cabinet yesterday the bill was signed without exception.

While the President was advised in some quarters that he would win his point in whole on the Commerce Court if he should veto the bill again, and that Congress would gladly grant it in order to wind up its work, there were intimations from other quarters that the House would fight as long as the President would, if the compromise were not acceptable.

Among a large number of other bills and resolutions that the President signed yesterday were the Hughes and Sherley industrial commission to investigate labor conditions and recommend legislation which will bring about more amicable relations between capital and labor. The Sherley bill prohibits false labeling of patent medicines as to their curative value.

The President also approved the bill to carry the Alaskan fur seal treaty into effect.

Baldwin and Austin To Run New Bureau

ALBERTUS H. BALDWIN.

Named Chief and Assistant Chief of Uncle Sam's Foreign and Domestic Department.

Nominations of Albertus H. Baldwin as chief and Oscar P. Austin as assistant chief of the newly created Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce in the Department of Commerce and Labor were sent to the Senate yesterday by President Taft.

Confirmation of the nominations is expected before Congress adjourns.

The men nominated for the positions now are chiefs of two bureaus which the new bureau will supplant. Mr. Baldwin is the chief of the Bureau of Manufactures and Mr. Austin is chief of the Bureau of Statistics.

Mr. Baldwin came to Washington from Connecticut, and is one of the most prominent and efficient men in the government service. The Bureau of Manufactures has assumed under his direction an important position. Its duties and functions, which now will be taken over by the new bureau, created by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill, made the Bureau of Manufactures a notable division of the government, not only in the United States but in foreign countries.

As its head, Mr. Baldwin has had the management of a great agency for development of commerce, and his appointment to the head of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce is regarded as an honor of his administration by President Taft.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Residents Pleased Over Bill to Extend Macadamized Roadway.

Tennessee Boy Loses Leg.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 23.—Residents of this city are greatly pleased over the text of the bill of Representative Carlisle as agreed upon by both House and Senate appropriating $22,000 to be expended to macadamize the roadway upon the government property between the United States Government experimental farm and the Arlington National Cemetery.

It is also set forth that $44,000 may be used for the construction of a public road from a point near the southern end of the new bridge highway across the Potomac to a point on or near the southern boundary line of the Arlington reservation, and following the boundary to the old county road, which passes centrally through the Arlington reservation.

This, therefore, means that construction of the greater part of the highway between Alexandria and Washington will be done before the winter sets in.

Both residents of this city as well as residents of the county are most pleased over the affair.

The most important feature to the residents of the county is the fact that both roads will be owned and operated by the government, and will, therefore, be kept up for all time by the government. Representative Carlisle has worked assiduously for several years past since he went into Congress in the interest of this measure.

Lewis Mankel, nineteen years old, of Knoxville, Tenn., while attempting to board a south-bound passenger Southern Railway train at the union passenger railway station late last night, either slipped or fell from the footboard and received serious injuries as a result.

Mankel was placed in an ambulance and taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where Dr. W. M. Smith amputated the left leg below the knee of the injured limb. It was reported at the hospital that Mankel was endeavoring to steal a rifle from the store reported to be greatly improved to-night.

Plans are rapidly being made by the various schools in this city for the reopening next month. Most of the schools in this city and vicinity will reopen for studies in September. Many improvements have been made at the schools, and in some instances new teachers will be added to the staff.

The work of issuing permits to the children to attend the public schools will be begun the week of September 2, and on September 3 next the public schools will be reopened for studies.

St. Mary's Academy, conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Cross, will reopen September 3 next.

Arlington Institute, a school for girls, of which Miss A. M. Chandler is principal, will reopen September 26 next.

Mrs. Margaret Rolle, sixty-five years old, who two weeks ago was taken to the Alexandria Hospital, from her home at Occoquan, Va., to be treated for a fracture of the hip, died this morning at the hospital following a stroke of paralysis.

The body was removed to Deane's undertaking chapel and will be shipped to her home at Occoquan Sunday next for burial.

Henry Callan has purchased from Robert M. Turner a two-story brick store and dwelling at the southwest corner of Columbus and Princess Streets.

A deed of conveyance was placed on record for the above property, and the Corporation Court, after extensive improvements, Mr. Callan will occupy the newly acquired building as a drug store.

Plans for the erection of a modern one-story building for the National Biscuit Company, which will be erected at the northwest corner of Washington and Wilkes Streets, will be opened next Monday. It is understood that all of the bidders are local contractors.

The work of preparing the square on Washington Street, between King and Cameron Streets, preparatory to the improvement of that square with asphalt block is rapidly nearing completion, and the hump which has for many years adorned that thoroughfare is now a thing of the past.

The burning of a fence in a yard of a house on Commerce Street, between Fayette and Payne Streets, brought out the entire fire department shortly before 3 o'clock this morning. The blaze was extinguished with chemical extinguishers. Its origin is not known.

At a meeting of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, held at its hall to-night, the second degree of the order was conferred and other business of a routine nature was also disposed of.

A brick cobbler gutter has been laid on the east side of St. Asaph Street, between King and Cameron Streets.

Almeron C. J. W. Summers returned this afternoon from Maryland, where he spent the past two weeks.

MRS. CLARENCE MACKAY, SOCIETY LEADER AND SUFFRAGIST, INJURED

Stockbridge, Mass., Aug. 23.—Mrs. Clarence Mackay, prominent New York society woman and suffrage leader, was flung out of her automobile this afternoon on the steep slope of Monument Mountain and was painfully bruised. She was carried to her country mansion, "Glen Burnie," where she was attended by a physician. It was said she had escaped serious injury.

Mrs. Mackay was at the wheel and the chauffeur was at her side. The car skidded, crashed against a pile of rocks, and was overturned. Both Mrs. Mackay and the chauffeur were thrown clear of the machine. They were picked up by passing tourists and carried home.

CHARGE POMERENE VIOLATED STATUTE

Cincinnati Business Men Allege Senator Loaned Franking Privilege to Bigelow.

Cincinnati, Aug. 23.—A special meeting of the Business Men's Club was held today to consider the charge that has been made to the effect that Senator Allee Pomerene and Congressman James N. Cox, Democratic candidate for Governor, have violated a Federal statute, in that they have delegated the privilege of their postal frank to Herbert B. Bigelow, to enable him to send tons of literature, asking votes for the proposed Ohio constitution, free through the mails.

Not in many months have local political circles been stirred as they were today. The pamphlets were inclosed in envelopes, which instead of stamps bear the printed facsimile signature of Congressman James N. Cox, or Senator Pomerene.

It is charged that these pamphlets, thirty-four mail wagon loads of them, were sent out to Cincinnati in bags without the addresses, but put up in bulk and consigned to Herbert B. Bigelow. There is a Federal statute against loaning franking privileges, the penalty is $500 for each violation and the offender may be impeached.

Assistant United States Prosecuting Attorney Darkey said today in regard to the matter that he would take action just as soon as Postmaster Monfort furnishes him with the necessary evidence. Postmaster Monfort said his department would handle the case immediately.

Senator Pomerene, when asked last night about the report that the use of his postal frank had been delegated to another person, said that copies of a speech on the initiative and referendum, made by Mr. Bigelow before the Ohio constitutional convention, and afterward printed in a public document, had been sent under his frank.

It is a thing that has been done "right along," the Senator started. He declined to discuss the matter.

Representative Cox could not be interviewed.

BEDIENT DEFEATS CLEVELAND NAPS

Red Sox Hurler Is in Great Form, and Davis' Lads Lose, 5 to 1.

Boston, Aug. 23.—Superb pitching by Bedient, backed by heavy hitting and brilliant fielding by his team mates, gave the Red Sox the third game of the series with Cleveland to-day, 5 to 1. Bedient was brilliant to the end, but cooled down when his team mates began to hit.

Speaker, Carrigan, and Ryan were the heavy hitters of the day.
